

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE STATEMENT

CLEANSPACE HOLDINGS LIMITED

ACN 150 214 636

Adopted by the Board on 28 August 2023.

1. BACKGROUND

CleanSpace Holdings Limited (“CleanSpace” or “the Company”) is committed to adopting best practice in corporate governance where these practices are appropriate for the business.

The corporate governance arrangements for CleanSpace Holdings Limited are set by the Board having regard to the ASX Corporate Governance Council’s Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations (4th Edition), the governance standards adopted generally by companies of a similar size to CleanSpace and in the best interests of CleanSpace and its shareholders. The principal features of CleanSpace’s governance framework are set out in this Corporate Governance Statement together with the extent to which CleanSpace follows the recommendations set by the ASX Corporate Governance Council.

2. ASX CORPORATE GOVERNANCE PRINCIPLES AND RECOMMENDATIONS

The ASX Corporate Governance Council has developed and released its fourth edition of the corporate governance recommendations for Australian listed entities (ASX Recommendations) in order to promote investor confidence and to assist companies to meet stakeholder expectations. The recommendations are not prescriptions, but guidelines. However, under the Listing Rules, CleanSpace is required to provide a statement annually disclosing the extent to which it has followed the ASX Recommendations in the relevant reporting period. Where CleanSpace does not follow a recommendation, it must identify the recommendation that has not been followed and give reasons for not following it and must also disclose what (if any) alternative governance practices it adopted in lieu of the recommendation during that period.

The Company’s current departures from the ASX Recommendations are included at Section 18 below.

The key aspects of the Board’s governance practices are summarised below. These charters and policies referred to in this statement are available on CleanSpace’s website at: cleanspacetechnology.com/governance.

3. BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Directors bring to the Board relevant experience and skills, including industry and business knowledge, financial management and corporate governance experience. Each Director has confirmed to the Company that they anticipate being able to perform their duties as a Non-Executive Director or Executive Director, as the case may be, without constraint having regard to their other commitments.

3.1 Directors

CleanSpace undertakes appropriate checks before appointing a director or senior executive or putting someone forward for election as a director. CleanSpace provides shareholders with all material information in its possession relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a director.

CleanSpace has a written agreement with each director and senior executive setting out the terms of their appointment. It also has a program for inducting new directors and periodically reviewing whether there is a need for existing directors to undertake professional development to maintain the skills and knowledge needed to perform their role as directors effectively.

Details of current directors are listed below:

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE STATEMENT

3.4 Board Performance

The Board Charter sets out the process for evaluating the performance of the Board, its committees and individual directors.

A performance evaluation was not undertaken this year given the recent changes to the composition of the Board with the resignation of the CEO and appointment of one of the non-executive directors to Interim CEO and then CEO during the year.

4. BOARD CHARTER

The Board Charter sets out the respective roles and responsibilities of the Board and management, including matters expressly reserved to the Board and those delegated to management.

It provides that the Board should comprise Directors with the appropriate mix of skills, experience, expertise and diversity which are relevant to the Company's businesses and the Board's responsibilities. The Board Charter allows the Board to delegate powers and responsibilities to committees established by the Board. The Board retains ultimate accountability to Shareholders in discharging its duties.

5. BOARD COMMITTEES

The Board may from time to time establish appropriate committees to assist in the discharge of its responsibilities. The Board has established an Audit and Risk Management Committee and a Remuneration and Nomination Committee.

Other committees may be established by the Board as and when required. Membership of Board committees will be based on the needs of the Company, relevant legislative and other requirements, and the skills and experience of individual Directors.

6. AUDIT AND RISK MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

The role of the Audit and Risk Management Committee is to assist the Board in fulfilling its responsibilities for corporate governance and overseeing the Company's financial reporting, internal control structure, risk management systems and internal and external audit functions. This includes confirming the quality and reliability of the financial information prepared by the Company, working with the external auditor on behalf of the Board and reviewing non-audit services provided by the external auditor to confirm they are consistent with maintaining external audit independence.

The Audit and Risk Management Committee provides advice to the Board and reports on the status and management of the risks to the Company. The purpose of the Committee's risk management process is to assist the Board in relation to risk management policies, procedures and systems and ensure that risks are identified, assessed and appropriately managed.

There was a period during the year when the Company did not comply with the recommendations set by the ASX Corporate Governance Council in relation to the composition and operation of the Committee for the full year, primarily as a result of Mr Graham McLean having previously been a non-executive director and chair of the Committee, taking on the role as CEO. The Board is currently considering the appointment of an additional non-executive director to the Board, and potentially to the Audit and Risk Committee.

The Committee currently comprises of Ms Lisa Hennessy (Chair), Mr Bruce Rathie, and Mr Graham McLean. Their qualifications and experience are detailed in 3.1. above and the number of times the Committee met and individual attendance at meetings is set out in the Company's Annual Report.

6.1 Risk

The Board, through the Audit and Risk Committee, reviews CleanSpace's risk management framework at least annually to satisfy itself that it continues to be sound and that CleanSpace is operating with due regard to the risk appetite set by the Board. A review of the Company's risk management framework to ensure it continues to be sound and the Company is operating with due regard to the risk appetite set by the Board was undertaken in 2023.

6.2 Internal Audit

CleanSpace does not have an internal audit function at this time however it employs processes for evaluating and continually improving the effectiveness of its governance, risk management and internal controls. The Board believes that this is appropriate given the size of the Company.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE STATEMENT

6.3 Environmental and Social Risks

The Company does not have any material exposure to environmental or social risks. The Company notes its products and services assist in the mitigation of health risks to people. CleanSpace Respirators provide the highest level of protection, comfort and performance against airborne workplace risks. They are used both in industrial and healthcare settings.

7. REMUNERATION AND NOMINATION COMMITTEE

The role of the Remuneration and Nomination Committee is to assist the Board in fulfilling its responsibilities for corporate governance and overseeing the Company's Remuneration and Nomination policies and practices.

This includes reviewing and making recommendations to the Board on remuneration packages and policies related to the Directors and senior executives. The Remuneration and Nomination Committee is also responsible for administering short term and long-term incentive plans (including any equity plans). In addition, the Committee is responsible for reviewing and making recommendations in relation to the composition and performance of the Board and its committees and ensuring that adequate succession plans are in place (including for the recruitment and appointment of Directors and senior management). Independent advice is sought where appropriate.

The Company complies with the recommendations set by the ASX Listing Rules and the ASX Corporate Governance Council in relation to the composition and operation of the Committee. The Committee currently comprises Ms Lisa Hennessey (Chair), Mr Graham McLean, and Mr Bruce Rathie.

The number of times the committee met and the individual attendances of members at those meetings is set out in the Company's Annual Report, available on the website.

7.1 Remuneration Policies

CleanSpace's remuneration policies and practices are set out in the Company's Remuneration Report found in the Annual Report.

The Company grants incentive securities (options, performance rights and/or restricted stock units) to key executives and directors under the Company's Employee Equity Incentive Plan. All employee incentive security holders must comply with the Company's Security Trading Policy. The Company's Security Trading Policy prohibits short-term or speculative trading in CleanSpace securities including transactions in the derivative markets, involving exchange traded options, share warrants, contracts for difference and other similar instruments, which are short term or speculative. The Company's Security Trading Policy also restricts entering into all types of "protection arrangements" for any CleanSpace securities (or products in the derivatives markets).

8. CODE OF CONDUCT

The Company is committed to a high level of integrity and ethical standards in all business practices. Accordingly, the Board has adopted a formal Code of Conduct that outlines how it expects its representatives to behave and conduct business in the workplace and includes legal compliance and guidelines on appropriate ethical standards.

The Code of Conduct is designed to provide a benchmark for professional behaviour throughout the Company's business, support its business reputation and corporate image within the community and make the Company's Directors and employees aware of the consequences if they breach this policy.

The Board is required to be informed of any material breaches to the Company's Code of Conduct.

9. VALUES

The Company's values are:

- Integrity
- Accountability
- Focus
- Excellence
- Teamwork

10. CORPORATE REPORTING

10.1 CEO and CFO Declaration

The Board received a declaration from both the CEO and CFO, that, in their opinion, the financial records have been properly maintained and that the financial statements comply with the appropriate accounting standards and give a true and fair view of the financial position and performance of the Group, and their opinion has been formed on the basis of a sound system of risk management and internal control which is operating effectively before the Board, approved the Company's financial statements for the 2023 financial period and will continue to ensure such declarations are received in the future.

10.2 Verification of Periodic reports

CleanSpace periodically releases reports that are not audited or reviewed by an external auditor. The Company has embedded processes to ensure the accuracy of these reports and to ensure they are balanced and provide investors with appropriate information to make informed investment decisions. All material reports are approved by the Board prior to release.

10.3 Website

Information about CleanSpace Holding Limited and its governance policies and practices is available on the Company's website at cleanspacetechnology.com/governance.

11. CONTINUOUS DISCLOSURE POLICY

CleanSpace is required to comply with the continuous disclosure requirements of the ASX Listing Rules and the Corporations Act. Subject to the exceptions contained in the ASX Listing Rules, the Company is required to immediately advise ASX of any information concerning the Company that a reasonable person would expect to have a material effect on the price or value of the Shares.

The Company has adopted a Disclosure Policy which reinforces the Company's commitment to its continuous disclosure obligations and describes the processes in place that enable the Company to provide Shareholders with timely disclosure in accordance with those obligations. Information is communicated to Shareholders through the lodgement of all relevant financial and other information with ASX, and copies of the Company's announcements to ASX are available on the Company's website. Any new and substantive investor or analyst presentation is released on ASX ahead of the presentation.

The Board receives a copy of all material market announcements, promptly after they have been made, from the Company Secretary.

12. COMMUNICATIONS WITH SHAREHOLDERS

The Company aims to keep Shareholders informed of major developments affecting the Company. The Company recognises investors and other interested stakeholders may wish to obtain information about the Company from time to time and it facilitates effective two-way communication with investors. To achieve this, the Company communicates and receives information regularly through a range of forums and publications, including the Company's website, investor briefings, at the Company's AGM and through the Company's Annual Report and ASX announcements.

The Annual General Meeting (AGM) is an important occasion for updating shareholders on the Company's performance. The AGM provides the opportunity for shareholders to ask questions of and hear from the Board. CleanSpace encourages shareholder participation at its AGM as an opportunity to allow the Board to listen and respond to shareholder feedback.

The Company ensures that its external auditor attends all AGMs and is available to answer queries from shareholders relevant to the audit and any substantive resolutions are decided by a poll rather than a show of hands.

CleanSpace gives its shareholders the option to send and receive all communications to the Company and its share registry electronically. Shareholders are encouraged to update their communication preferences and elect to receive all communication electronically with the Company's share registry, Boardroom Pty Limited, at investorserve.com.au.

13. DIVERSITY POLICY

The Board has adopted a Diversity Policy, which sets out the Company's commitment to an inclusive and diverse workforce. The Board has not set measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity in the composition of its board, senior executives and workforce generally to date. Given the Company's current proportions of men and women across the business, the Board believes this is appropriate at this time however it will look at setting measurable objectives in the future.

The Company's current proportions of men and women on the board, senior executives and workforce generally are:

	Male	Female
Board	75%	25%
Senior Executives	68%	33%
Workforce	55%	45%

14. SECURITIES TRADING POLICY

The Company has adopted a Securities Trading Policy that is intended to explain the types of conduct in relation to dealing in securities that are prohibited by law and establish procedures for the buying and selling of securities to ensure that public confidence is maintained in the reputation of the Company and the Company's Directors and employees, and in the trading of the Company's securities.

The Securities Trading Policy provides that Directors, employees and contractors must not deal in the Company's securities when they are aware of 'inside' information. Directors and certain restricted employees must not deal in the Company's securities during any of the following blackout periods:

- from the close of the ASX trading day on 30 November each year, until 10:00 am Australian Eastern Daylight Time (AEDT) on the ASX trading day following the day on which the Company's half yearly results are released to the ASX;
- from the close of the ASX trading day on 31 May each year, until 10:00 am (AEST) on the ASX trading day following the day on which the Company's full year results are released to the ASX;
- from the close of the ASX trading day two weeks prior to the date of the Company's AGM until 10:00 am (AEST) on the ASX trading day following the date of the Company's AGM; and
- any other period that the Board specifies from time to time.

If 31 May or 30 November are not ASX trading days, then the blackout period begins on the preceding ASX trading day.

Directors and restricted employees must confirm they are not in possession of any inside information and receive prior approval for any proposed dealing in the Company's securities outside of the above blackout periods (including any proposed dealing by one of their connected persons).

15. WHISTLE-BLOWER PROTECTION POLICY

The Company is committed to the highest standards of conduct and ethical behaviour in all of its business activities and to promoting and supporting a culture of honest and ethical behaviour, corporate compliance and good corporate governance. The Company's Whistle-blower Protection Policy has been adopted to provide a safe and confidential environment where concerns can be raised by whistle blowers without fear of reprisal or detrimental treatment.

The Board is required to be informed of any material incidents reported under the Whistle-blower Protection Policy.

16. ANTI-BRIBERY AND CORRUPTION POLICY

The Company is committed to complying with all laws of the jurisdictions in which it operates, including those relating to bribery and corruption. The Company's Anti-bribery and Corruption Policy set out the responsibilities of the Company's personnel, including in their dealings with, and through, third parties. It addresses protection of the Company's personnel in seeking to comply with this policy, investigations, consequences for breach, examples of improper conduct, contact with government officials, in-kind gifts and corporate hospitality, political and charitable contributions and secret commissions.

Any material breach of the Anti-bribery and Corruption Policy is required to be notified to the Board.

17. SENIOR EXECUTIVE PERFORMANCE REVIEW

Senior executives manage the day-to-day tasks of the Company under the guidance and direction of the CEO. CleanSpace recognises the importance of its senior executives to the Company's growth and performance. Accordingly, the Company undertakes regular evaluations of its senior executives to review their effectiveness and performance on an ongoing basis.

The CEO reviews the performance of senior executives annually. These evaluations assess the completeness and effectiveness of each senior executive in meeting their KPIs, whether the executive has the appropriate mix of skills and experience to allow the Company to meet its corporate goals and whether the executive provides a safe, secure, productive, harmonious and inclusive environment for their employees to perform at their best.

A performance review of senior executives was undertaken by the CEO this year.

considering the appointment of an additional non-executive director who could also potentially be appointed to the Audit and Risk Committee, following which the Company may comply with the ASX Corporate Governance Council's recommendation 4.1.

18. DEPARTURE FROM ASX RECOMMENDATIONS

Through the corporate governance framework adopted by the Board (and summarised above), the Company is compliant with each of the ASX Recommendations other than Recommendations:

- 1.5. While the Board has adopted a Diversity Policy, it has not set measurable objectives to achieve gender diversity in the composition of its board, senior executives and workforce generally. This is not consistent with Recommendation 1.5 of the ASX Recommendations. Given the Company's current diversity levels within the business, the Board is comfortable with this position, however it may choose to develop measurable objectives for gender diversity across the Company in the future.
- 2.4. The majority of the Board of CleanSpace were independent prior to the appointment of non-executive director, Graham McLean, to the role of (interim) CEO in January 2023. The Board is currently considering the appointment of an additional non-executive director to add independence to the Board, following which, it expects to comply with the ASX Corporate Governance Council's recommendation 2.4.
- 4.1. The Audit and Risk Committee currently is not comprised of three non-executive directors following Mr McLean's appointment as (interim) CEO in January 2023. Prior to that time the Committee's composition complied with the recommendation. The Board is currently
